The Birth of a Culinary Icon

In 1998, restaurateur Lydia Shire and her husband, chef Jody Adams, opened the doors to Toscanini, fulfilling their dream of creating a restaurant that would showcase their love for Italian cuisine.

Lydia, a seasoned restaurateur with a keen eye for detail, envisioned a space that was both inviting and elegant. Jody, a culinary virtuoso with a deep understanding of Italian culinary traditions, was determined to present authentic Italian dishes with a modern twist.

A Menu that Embraces Tradition and Innovation

The menu at Toscanini is a testament to Jody Adams' culinary artistry. Each dish is carefully crafted, paying homage to the flavors of Italy while incorporating contemporary techniques and seasonal ingredients.

Signature dishes like the roasted bone marrow with gremolata and the squid ink risotto with charred octopus have become favorites among regulars. The menu also features daily specials that showcase the freshest ingredients and Jody's culinary creativity.
