Book 1: The Hunger Games

The Hunger Games introduces us to Katniss Everdeen, a brave and selfless 16-year-old girl living in the impoverished District 12 of Panem. After her younger sister, Primrose, is selected as a tribute for the annual Hunger Games, a televised battle to the death among 24 children, Katniss volunteers to take her place.

Together with Peeta Mellark, the boy tribute from their district, Katniss is thrust into a brutal competition where alliances are fragile and survival is paramount. As they navigate the treacherous arena, facing deadly traps and vicious predators, Katniss and Peeta must confront their own humanity and the oppressive regime that rules Panem.

Book 2: Catching Fire

In Catching Fire, Katniss and Peeta have returned home as victors, but their triumph is short-lived. President Snow, the ruthless leader of Panem, sees their newfound fame as a threat to his authority. He orchestrates a cruel twist in the rules, forcing Katniss and Peeta to compete in the Quarter Quell, a special edition of the Hunger Games designed to eliminate them.

As Katniss and Peeta fight for their survival once again, they become entangled in a brewing rebellion against the Capitol. Alliances are tested, sacrifices are made, and the stakes for humanity's freedom grow ever higher.

Book 3: Mockingjay
