Cast down from Mount Olympus and turned into a mortal teenager named Lester Papadopoulos, Apollo finds himself stripped of his divine powers and stripped of his immortality. Accompanied by Meg McCaffrey, a feisty and enigmatic demigod, Apollo must face a series of perilous trials that will test his wits, his courage, and his very soul.

As Apollo and Meg navigate the treacherous landscapes of modern-day America, they encounter an array of mythological creatures, both ancient and new. From vengeful harpies to formidable giants, they must overcome insurmountable obstacles and confront the lurking shadows that threaten the very fabric of the world.

With each trial, Apollo learns valuable lessons about humanity, empathy, and the true meaning of being a hero. Along the way, he forges unbreakable bonds and discovers hidden depths within himself as he strives to prove his worth and reclaim his place among the gods.
