Simone Biles is the most decorated gymnast in American history. She has won 32 Olympic and World Championship medals, including four Olympic gold medals. Biles is known for her incredible strength, power, and grace, and she is considered to be one of the greatest gymnasts of all time.

Biles was born in Columbus, Ohio, in 1997. She was adopted by her grandparents when she was three years old. Biles began gymnastics at the age of six, and she quickly showed a natural talent for the sport. She won her first national championship at the age of 14, and she made her Olympic debut at the 2016 Rio Olympics.

At the Rio Olympics, Biles won four gold medals and one bronze medal. She became the first American woman to win four gold medals in a single Olympics since 1984. Biles also won the all-around gold medal, becoming the first American woman to win the all-around gold medal since 1996.

Since the Rio Olympics, Biles has continued to dominate the sport of gymnastics. She has won six more World Championship medals, including four gold medals. Biles is also the first woman to win three consecutive all-around World Championship titles.

Biles is an inspiration to millions of people around the world. She is a role model for young athletes, and she has shown that anything is possible with hard work and dedication. Biles is a true champion, and her story is one that will continue to inspire generations to come.
