

How to Be Everything: A Guide to Succeeding in the Modern World

In today's rapidly changing world, it can be difficult to know how to succeed. The old rules no longer apply, and it seems like the only way to get ahead is to be everything to everyone. But what does that even mean? And how is it possible to be everything when there are only so many hours in a day?

In her new book, How to Be Everything, entrepreneur and author Emily Chang shares her secrets for success in the modern world. Drawing on her own experiences and the wisdom of experts, Chang offers practical advice on everything from finding your passion to building a successful business.

Chang argues that the key to success in the modern world is to be adaptable and versatile. We need to be able to change our skills and knowledge as the world around us changes. We also need to be able to work well with others, and to be able to communicate our ideas effectively.

Chang offers a wealth of practical advice on how to develop the skills and attributes that you need to succeed in the modern world. She covers topics such as:

- Finding your passion
- Building a successful business
- Working well with others
- Communicating your ideas effectively

Whether you're just starting out in your career or you're looking for a way to take your success to the next level, How to Be Everything is an essential guide. Chang's practical advice and insights will help you to navigate the challenges of the modern world and achieve your goals.
