Along their arduous path, Mary's time draws near. With the bustling streets of Bethlehem unable to accommodate the weary couple, they are led to the humble shelter of a stable. It is here, amidst the lowing of cattle, that the miracle of birth unfolds.

A Humble Cradle

In this unlikely setting, the King of Kings is born, surrounded not by earthly riches but by the love of his devoted parents.

A Celestial Announcement

While shepherds tend their flocks in the surrounding hills, a radiant angel appears, heralding the momentous news. The birth of the Messiah, the long-awaited deliverer, has come to pass. Filled with awe, the shepherds hasten to the stable to witness the extraordinary sight.
