The poems in this book are written by a variety of poets, from all walks of life. They share a common theme, however: a deep respect and admiration for the men and women who have given their lives for our freedom.

These poems are a reminder of the sacrifices that have been made for us, and they are a call to action to continue to fight for the ideals that our veterans died for.

Sample Poems

Here are a few sample poems from the book:

The Soldier

He stands tall and proud,

A guardian of our land,

A defender of our freedom.

He is a soldier.

He has seen the horrors of war,

But he has never lost his faith.

He knows that he is fighting for a just cause,

And he is determined to win.

He is a hero,

And we owe him our thanks.

The Gold Star Mother

She wears a gold star on her heart,

A symbol of her sacrifice.

Her son gave his life for our country,

And she is forever grateful.

She is a strong woman,

And she is an inspiration to us all.

She reminds us of the price of freedom,

And she challenges us to never forget.

The Veteran

He has served his country with honor,

And he is now home.

He is a veteran,

And he deserves our respect.

He has seen the best and worst of humanity,

But he has never lost his hope.

He knows that there is still good in the world,

And he is determined to make a difference.

He is a hero,

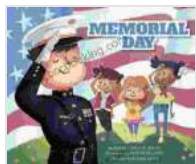

And we owe him our thanks.
