A Symphony of Nightmares

Within these pages, you'll find a symphony of nightmares, each story meticulously crafted to evoke a different shade of horror. From the bone-chilling terror of Stephen Graham Jones' "The Bones of Paris" to the psychological torment of Laird Barron's "The Beautiful Thing That Awaits Us All," no corner of your mind will remain untouched.

The chilling tales explore themes of isolation, madness, and the darkness that lurks within the human soul. With each turn of the page, you'll encounter a new layer of fear, a new world of nightmares that will haunt your thoughts long after you close the book.

Masterful Storytelling from Literary Titans

The Best Horror of the Year Volume 15 features an all-star cast of horror masters, including:

- Tananarive Due – "Ghost Summer" – A haunting tale of a young woman haunted by the ghosts of her ancestors.
- Joe Hill – "Faun" – A terrifying encounter with a mythical creature in the depths of a forest.
- Livia Llewellyn – "Miss Purple" – A chilling story about a woman obsessed with the color purple and its deadly consequences.
- Paul Tremblay – "The Thirteenth Step" – A mind-bending thriller that explores the horrors of a haunted staircase.

Each author brings their unique voice and style to the anthology, creating a rich tapestry of terror that will linger in your memory for years to come.
